BOTHMER IN A TRAP

Advance North of Dniester Puts Russians in Austrians' Rear—Take 50-500 Prisoners

Petrograd, Aug. 11.—The town of Stanislaw, in Galicia, is already within the range of the Russian guns. The Russian General Letchitzky, losing no time in following up his victory at Tysmenitsa, has pushed westward along the railroad and northward along the wagon road and in the latter direction has approached to within six miles of Stanislaw. Simultaneously he has announced a drive across the Koryup river and the formation of a new line of advance north of the Dniester.

Hitherto General Count von Bothmer had enjoyed more or less protection for his right on the Tarnopol position from the flooded Dniester. The appearance of an offensive north of the Dniester, which has already carried the Russians as far west as the crossing of the railroad at Nizhny, 20 miles east of Stanislaw, projects an entirely new element into the situation. With Monastyrzyska seriously flanked, General von Bothmer finds himself with General Letchitzky in the rear of his advanced position along the Stripa and in close touch. The Austrians are vainly striving to strengthen this new advance by desperate counter-attacks, in which the troops engage in hand-to-hand encounters, but apparently with the net result favoring the Russians.

The counting of General Letchitzky's prisoners during the 10 days' operations shows that he has taken upward of 15,000 and it is estimated that 10,000 more men were put out of commission. This would bring the grand total of prisoners to General Brusiloff's credit since early in June to 402,000.

Russian troops have stormed the Słota-Lipa river, in Galicia, east of Stanislaw, in the continuation of their progress westward along the Monastyrzyska-Nizhny railway, and have captured the railway station of Krypin, on the Stanislaw-Nadwórna railroad, says the official statement given out by the War Department.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Heavy attacks have been made by the Russians at various points along the Stokhod line, in Volhynia, east of Kovel, the War Office announces. All the Russian advances were repulsed with heavy losses, it is declared.

In Galicia, southeast of Brody, new engagements were developing yesterday adds the statement.

Herman Ruben, 13 years old, of No. 1769 Third avenue, was playing on the fire-escape at the fourth floor of No. 506 Ninth avenue yesterday when he lost his balance, fell to the street and was instantly killed. Ruben had been visiting friends, at the Ninth avenue address.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Found Lying Across Steps of Residence in West Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—Out of a maze of contradiction and evasion surrounding the circumstances under which Harry Frankfield, an insurance broker and clubman, was found in a dying condition early yesterday morning at the door of the house, No. 1600 Wallace street, Captain of Detectives Tate uncovered enough facts to warrant the arrest of three women, one of whom is being held without bail, and to start the police on a search of the city for a man believed by the detectives to be involved in the affair.

Frankfield, who was married, was discovered lying unconscious beside the steps of the Wallace street house at 12:45 o'clock yesterday morning. At the hospital it was said the back of his head had been crushed in, four ribs broken and that his right lung had been "punctured" by one of the fractured ribs. He died following an operation in which the hospital surgeons sought to save his life by removing parts of his skull that had been splintered and were pressing the brain.

SUPPRESSION OF TAGEBLATT

Maximilian Harden's Criticism of Extreme German Partisans

London, Aug. 11.—Word has been received here that what caused the suppression of the Berlin Tageblatt on August 1 was an article by Maximilian Harden, editor of Die Zukunft who has written much frank criticism of Germanys conduct of the war. Harden's article says that the German government never should have declared war without consulting the reichstag. A translation of part of Harden's article follows:

"Declarations that this war was an inevitable war, that Germany was forced into it all unprepared and against her will cannot be supported except by extremist partisans. Undoubtedly the conflict could have been avoided had the government desired to avoid it.

"Undoubtedly, too, it would have been avoided had the reichstag been taken into the confidence of our rulers, instead of being presented merely with a recital of actions taken independently of it."

Former United States Senator J. M. Thurston died Wednesday at Omaha, Nebr.

ASKS PEACE TERMS.

Karolyi, Hungarian Leader of New Party at Budapest, Would Have War Aims Stated.

Amsterdam, Aug. 11.—A telegram from Budapest says that Count Michael Karolyi, leader of the new Independence party, speaking in the Hungarian Chamber of Deputies, asserted it would be in the interests of peace if the Government would make a declaration in regard to the war aims of the Monarchy and the conditions demanded for terminating the struggle. Although he desired a speedy peace, he wished it to be a lasting one.

Referring to Rumania and the aspirations supposed to be cherished there for possession of Transylvania, the count said:

"So long as a Hungarian breathes we shall fight unwaveringly for the integrity of Hungary and the defense of Transylvania."

WIELDS KNIFE IN FIGHT

Scrap Over Hotel Guest May Cause Victim's Death

Atlantic City, August 11.—Stabbed over the heart, in the arm, beneath the right shoulder blade, and slit from the chest to the centre of the back with a pocket knife, John Foxhill, son-in-law of Mrs. M. M. Wilde, proprietor of the Hotel Wilde, on St. James place, is in a critical condition in the City Hospital. Physicians fear he will not recover. R. J. Mathers, of Miami, Fla., has been arrested accused of the stabbing.

The stabbing occurred immediately after the dinner hour at the Hotel Wilde last night, when the two men, it is charged, fought over a woman. Foxhill had been asked last night by Mrs. Wilde to help wait upon the hotel guests. He was coming from the kitchen with a tray of dishes when Mrs. Oscar Foster spoke sharply to him. Foxhill retorted in kind and Mathers, who was sitting at the same table with Mrs. Foster, jumped up and demanded that Foxhill apologize and, it is alleged, invited Foxhill outside and fight it out. Mrs. Wilde declares she interfered and told her son-in-law to do nothing of the kind.

After the dinner the men are said to have gone into the sideyard. There the fight occurred, in the course of which Mathers is said to have stabbed Foxhill with his penknife.

Italians Occupy Boschim After Hot Fighting on Carso Plateau—King Enters Gorizia

Rome, Aug. 11.—The Austrians lost more than 50,000 in killed, wounded and prisoners in the two days of fighting that preceded the fall of Gorizia according to dispatches received here today. This number was equally divided between prisoners and casualties on the field.

East of Gorizia Italian cavalry continues to press the pursuit of the retreating Austrians, and is now reported to have reached the Lubiana plains.

The Italian force that turned south from Gorizia to drive the enemy out of the bend of the Isonzo has encountered most stubborn resistance on the Carso plateau, where severe fighting is going on.

The main body of Italians that crossed the Isonzo apparently has not yet joined in the pursuit. All dispatches from the Gorizia front declare that only a part of General Cadorna's troops on that sector are now engaged with the retreating Austrians.

Austrian prisoners report that the Italian blow at Gorizia came as a complete surprise. Their commanders believed that the Italian Isonzo front had been stripped of both men and munition supplies to repel the Austrians in the Trentino, and anticipated no attack against Gorizia for at least two months.

Reserves were rushed up to the Gorizia positions Sunday night after the Italian attack began. They found the advanced Austrian positions blown to pieces and the Italians pouring through numerous breaches in the Austrian line.

Roma, Aug. 11.—The Italians have pierced the strong Austrian intrenchments northeast of Monte San Michele, on the Isonzo front, and near the village of San Martino, the War Office announces. They have occupied Boschini. The statement says more than 12,000 Austrians have been captured thus far in the offensive. The figures given are 268 officers and 12,072 men.

Notwithstanding the desperate fighting around Gorizia, the city itself was not burned by the Austrians or destroyed by the Italian artillery fire; nor were the inhabitants injured, these to the number of 20,000 having previously evacuated the city. It was the desire of the Italian commander, General Cadorna to save Gorizia from destruction by the retreating Austrians, and to that end he employed strategy.

After taking the mountain tops of San Michele and Sabotino, he attacked Gorizia not only from the front across the Isonzo, but also from the sides and rear. When the Duke of Aosta commander of the thirty army, who was present during the three days of fighting, entered the city after forcing the bridge across the river at the head of cavalry and cycle corps, Gorizia was found to be deserted save by great numbers of wounded and dying Austrians on the outskirts. The Duke was accompanied by his cousin, the King. The only damage done by the Austrians was that occasioned by their attempts to destroy military buildings filled with large quantities of supplies.

Vienna, Aug. 11.—The official statement issued from General Headquarters "Owing to the situation brought about by our evacuation of the Gorizia bridgehead, the town has been given up after a sanguinary repulse fresh Italian attacks on the Doberdo plateau. The necessary straightening of our line was carried out unhindered by the enemy."

"We have captured 4,100 Italian prisoners in the past few days."

CABIN CREEK SWEEPED BARE

At Least Fifty Drowned in Flood in West Virginia

5,000 ARE HOMELESS

Battalion of National Guard Directs Relief Measures—Damages Reach a Million

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 11.—Cabin creek, whose flood waters tore through its little mountain valley Wednesday and carried with them more than two score lives and millions of dollars' worth of property, returned yesterday to its narrow bed. For 16 miles from Bonda, where the creek empties into the Kanawha river, there stretched a scene of absolute desolation which was duplicated along every little branch coming out of the hills.

Fully 50 persons are known to have been lost, and men in charge of the many relief parties already at work feel that this number will be considerably increased when the frightened miners and their families have returned to their homes and the count is completed.

Five persons were drowned at Eskdale, 5 at United, 16 at Ferndale, 8 at Miami, 2 at Dawes, 4 at Dry Branch, 4 at Holly and 5 at Giles, while a lineman returning from a 13-mile tramp through the devastated districts reported 40 dead along his route. All of these losses were not sustained in the Cabin Creek Valley, some of them being on the Coal river side of the mountain, although the principal losses were sustained there.

The flood came upon the people early Wednesday morning. W. A. Smith, an insurance broker of Cincinnati, who was in the district, declared that water rolled down the narrow valley, foam crested, and from his point of vantage on an engine at Eskdale, where he and others had taken refuge, he saw the roundhouse, fill with 10 feet of water in less than half an hour, while the flood stretched from hill to hill across the valley.

Houses were swept from their foundations and women and children, hurriedly leaving their homes, were drowned in some instances before they could reach the hills.

The flood came in contact with the carbide supply of a moving picture theatre at Eskdale and it exploded, blowing the place to pieces. Loaded coal cars were jammed one against the other in indescribable confusion. The Cabin Creek Coal Company lost 125 cars of coal at Crane Fork, the cars and coal being washed away, while 15 feet of mud and sand were deposited in their place. A street carnival company showing at De Soto lost all of its equipment and animals, although the performers escaped.

These and similar incidents by the dozen were reported, when couriers from rescue parties, penetrating the valley, returned with pressing appeals for help. Fully 5,000 persons were said to be homeless, the majority of them without food and clothing or the means to secure them, as every store in the Cabin Creek Valley seems to have been washed away and its contents destroyed.

Twenty-three bodies have been recovered from the debris carried down by the flood.

At least eight villages and mining settlements in the district were either partially or totally destroyed, while many others felt the effect of the storm more or less. Those practically destroyed or badly damaged were Acme, Ronda, Drybranch, Miami, Sharon, Dawes, Kayford and Eskdale.

TO-MORROW'S REGATTA PROUD OF VIRGINIANS HORSE AND COW LAW

Committee of Old Dominion Boat Club Announces Interesting Program For Event

Officers and the regatta committee of the Old Dominion Boat Club today announced the complete program for the regatta and reception to be held by the club tomorrow afternoon from four until eight o'clock at its boat house on the river front between Duke and Prince street. Its oarsmen are all primed for the regatta and the affair will probably go down into history as one of the greatest affairs of the sort ever undertaken here.

Not in recent years has there been anywhere near the enthusiasm as is manifested by the club men at the present time. The club house will be spick and span for the occasion, all of the finishing touches in repainting and decorating the exterior and interior of the building having been completed by the "Co-operative Paint Society" recently. A large sign bearing the name of the organization has been placed in front of the building and electric lights, switched on last night for the first time, have been installed throughout.

Chief interest of the regatta proper centers in the one-mile "centipede" race. Coach Muller's crack four will compete against a crew of the Annapolis Boat Club, of Washington, time honored rivals of the local club, with whom have been fought out many bitter struggles on the Potomac in the past. In the Old Dominion shell will sit James W. Roberts, stroke, Francis Summers, 3, Leo Pohl 2; and A. J. Pohl, Jr., bow.

The first race, the single gig event, will begin promptly at 4:30 o'clock, and the other races will follow in order named: Single gig; double gig, single canoe, double canoe, diving contest, swimming race, canoe tilting, canoe upset, and a centipede race between the senior and junior crews of the Old Dominion club.

Following have been designated as officials: referee and starter, James S. Douglas, Jr., clerk of course, E. E. Carver; judges at finish, Lycurgus E. Uhler, Captain Albert Bryan, George E. Warfield, C. Aubrey Callahan, and A. G. Uhler.

The reception is slated to take place in the boat house and refreshments will be served by the ladies auxiliary composed of honorary lady members of the club. In the evening a big dance will take place.

NEW TRAFFIC RATES

Claims of Wholesale Merchants of Virginia Will Be Urged

Local wholesale dealers are greatly interested in the proposed new traffic rates from the Pacific coast, owing to the fact that numbers of the articles sold by local firms come from far western states, and wholesale merchants of this city will be represented in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington next Monday, when the claims of wholesale merchants of the State of Virginia will be presented.

To perfect arrangements for presenting their side of the case wholesale merchants of this city, Washington and the District, and other parts of Virginia are holding a preliminary meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce of Washington. D. C. J. T. Preston, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, is in attendance at the merchants' session, representing the Alexandria wholesale dealers, as traffic manager.

Captain Writes to Governor Stuart Regarding Camp and Food at Brownsville

Alexandria soldiers as well as all others of the Old Dominion are being well treated in Texas, according to a letter received at the office of Gov. Stuart in Richmond. It came from Capt. Daniel L. Porter, formerly of Staunton, who is now at Brownsville. Capt. Porter says that the Virginians are in a fine camp, and that the food is good. He inclosed a clipping from a Brownsville paper which is as follows:

"It is as natural for good soldiers to come from Virginia as it is for a duck to show partiality for water. A thousand sons of the state of George Washington, the Lees and Stonewall Jackson marched proudly under the banner of the old commonwealth and reflected glory upon the memory of their ancestors. Texas, the home of so many ex-Virginians, is jointly proud of the khaki-clad scions of the old South who passed in review upon the grassy field kissed by the flood tide of the Rio Grande. When the flowers no longer smile at the kiss of the morning sun and the honey bee no longer drinks from the dew-crowned petals, old Virginia will cease to be the birth place of the nation's brave and fair."

Piled mountain high an almost limitless amount of cheer from home for the Virginia soldiers boys on the border in the shape of cigars and tobacco and chewing gum and candy contributed by Richmond people, is stored in that city and will soon be forwarded to Brownsville. One of the largest consignments is forty cartons of peonut crisp, a confection contributed by the manufacturing company. This confection is composed largely of that highly flavored nut.

LATE MISS STUART

Funeral services for the late Miss Sallie Ashton Stuart who died Wednesday afternoon, will be conducted this afternoon at 5 o'clock at Christ Episcopal Church, as announced in yesterday's Gazette. The Rev. William J. Morton, rector of the church, returned to this city last night from Fredericksburg, where he is spending his vacation, in order to be able to hold the services. Bishop-Coadjutor William Cabell Brown, of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia, will assist Dr. Morton in officiating.

A temporary flooring is being laid in the aisles of Christ Church, in order that the services can be held as the church has been closed for the month of August, while the flooring of the aisles is being replaced with stone flagging.

Sea Gate Station Hears Instrument of German Type Fifty Miles Distant

New York, Aug. 11.—The ubiquitous Bremen, Deutschland's sister ship, bobbed up again today; this time via wireless.

The operator at Sea Gate and Sandy Hook wireless stations were startled from a doze early today by a call for "Telefunken station. New York," the call by all German ships before the war. He replied: "Telefunken station closed," and asked the sender's name. There was no reply.

About 3 a. m., an hour and a half later, another call, apparently from the same source, inquired when the Telefunken station would open. This time the message was signed "DEU," which is the old signature of the North German Lloyd ship Prussia, supposed to be tied up at New Orleans.

"The spark came from a German apparatus," said the Sea Gate operator. "It was unmistakable and came from about fifty miles at sea, from a lowpower instrument."

This gave rise to the belief that the call came from the Bremen, but at the same time Baltimore and New London, Conn., are confident the submarine may appear there at any moment.

Penalty of Two Dollars on Each Stray Animals Provided in City Statute

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. Officer Campbell yesterday evening arrested a native of the land of the Czar on the charge of being drunk in the street. His stock of English was so slim that it was impossible to get his name until this morning when the prisoner succeeded in making it apparent that he was Alexander Daniel, of Russia. He also made it plain to the court that a man should not get drunk. Daniel has been working on a road near the city. He was directed to return to work. This had to be done, however, in the mute language.

A white man and a colored woman had been cited to appear to show cause why they should not be fined for allowing cows to roam through the streets in the northwestern section of the city. The defense was upon the usual grounds—they paid boys to watch the bovines. The officers, however, stated that the boys were irresponsible and left the cows to roam at pleasure while they witnessed games of baseball. The delinquents were told they were responsible, and the charges were dismissed with the assurance that should they repeat the offense the fines will be imposed. The owners of the cows assured the court that there would be no repetitions of the offense. It was stated by the court that a drove of cows were browsing on Wilkes street at the intersection with Lee a few evenings ago, while a horse was roaming about the same locality, and that in future persons owning stray animals would be compelled to pay the penalty provided. There seems to be an impression that the horse and cow law is of a class to be more honored in its breach than observance. It is hoped that it will not be necessary to use drastic means in order to dispel this illusion.

COMMITTEE ORGANIZED

Prayer Meetings Will Be Held Preliminary to Revival Services

In connection with the evangelistic revivals to be held in this city, beginning September 1, and which will be conducted by Gypsy Smith, Jr., of Haddon Heights, N. J., a prayer meeting committee has been organized, which, at a meeting last night, appointed twenty-one superintendents over the twenty-one districts, into which the city was recently divided in order to facilitate the work of the various committees of the campaign in compiling the church census announced yesterday. The committee also appointed twenty-one assistant leaders.

During the course of the recent census-taking by the house-to-house canvass, names of residents were booked whose homes could be used for prayer meetings, and the committee announces that prayer meetings will be held several times a week in different residences by the district leaders and their assistants until the opening of the evangelistic campaign in September.

A system for the meetings will be perfected at another meeting of the committee Sunday afternoon.

PREVAILING EPIDEMICS.

While typhoid fever is causing anxiety in parts of Virginia and ravages of infantile paralysis are distressing so many people in New York and sections nearby, Baltimore is suffering from a wife beating epidemic.
The malady is reported to be spreading to an alarming extent.
Several new cases were reported in the monumental city yesterday.

John Paul has, according to the wife, Agnes Paul, been beating her for the last five months, it being almost a daily occurrence.

"Judge," testified the wife, "my husband has been beating me unmercifully, and on Monday of each week he seems to start out with a determination to administer a more severe lashing. That seems to be his big day."

Edwin L. Johnson, whose wife, Mabel E. Johnson, recently came out of a hospital, was brought before the magistrate on a charge of beating his spouse, who was unable to appear.
Dr. Edward A. Morgan declared that she would be unable to appear before September 10, her condition being such that she will not recuperate before that time.

Thomas J. Burns faced a magistrate on a charge of disturbing the peace, warrant having been issued by his wife, Bessie Burns. "He came home the other day," stated the wife, "and with an ax broke up the parlor dining room and kitchen furniture.
Then he shoveled the debris into the yard where he knelt down and raised his hands to God, praying that He would impose a curse on the baby and myself."

The accused in the above cases were fined or imprisoned.

Several suits for divorce have been entered in Baltimore during the past few days.

Mrs. Flora J. Miller was granted an absolute divorce from Joseph H.
Miller, who, she said, had beaten her and had kicked her out of bed, breaking her kneecap.

Lawmakers in some states believe the most effective panacea for wife-beating is the whipping post, and the lash is administered instead of fines and imprisonment.

Two men who had been convicted of wife-beating in Kansas city recently were handcuffed together each with a broom in his free hand and made to sweep one of the most thickly-populated streets in the city. A large crowd soon gathered to watch the "show," and in a short time the passageway became blocked with people, some of whom probably had quit work to enjoy the display of the wife-beaters. As is generally the case, some persons, who get their amusement from the sight of others committing crimes, are so loudly against the action of the authorities that later the prisoners were returned to the jail.

WHAT GORIZIA MEANS

The capture of Gorizia by the Italians marks the first real success of Italy's operations against Austria; but though it has required over a year to make this first forward step of importance, it has been made just at a time when it counts for most. The Allies this year are coordinating and synchronizing their attacks, or, in other words, are working together in a general and clearly conceived plan of campaign which is based on a very definite program.
The object is to segregate and overrun Austria, preventing the Germans from detaching troops for her relief from the western front by continuous assaults in France that require all Germany's available strength to hold in check. The Italian success on the Isonzo river is due very probably to the withdrawal of Austrian forces from this front to reinforce her hard-pressed armies in the east, since the positions which have at length been carried are of great natural strength and could easily have been held by an enemy of anything like equal numbers. This can be said without dis-arranging Italian valor or military skill. Evidently the Austrians miscalculated their power of resistance and the aggressiveness of their opponents. The latter found their weak spot and have scored a brilliant and significant success. The occupation of Gorizia puts them north of Trieste on the gulf of that name, within easy striking distance of the city which has been their first chief objective for more than twelve months, and promises to give them control of the Austrian Adriatic shore line for a considerable distance.

As is suggested by the Baltimore Sun, it is a little too early to compute accurately the final value of the Italian victory. Obviously, the Italians are still a long way from Vienna, as a glance at the map will show, and even the capture of Trieste is still in the future. But the breaking down of the Austrian line of strong defenses at this point will have a small influence in stimulating the Italian operations, in enlivening the Italian people and in adding to the embarrassment and demoralization of the Austrian Government.

So long as things went well on the eastern front Italy's fierce assaults seemed as negligible as the attacks of a single dog on a bear at the mouth of its cave. But now that Austria's life is menaced by the Russian advance, the furious wolfhound on the south becomes a source of serious danger. The capture of Gorizia is an evidence not so much of Italy's increased strength as of Austria's growing weakness. If she has not forces enough to hold such naturally strong and elaborately fortified positions as those surrounding Gorizia, how will she be able to check the Italian advance at points which do not equalize disparity in numbers?

The question now is, can Germany save Austria from her encircling enemies? Austria must be saved, or Germany is lost.

DELIVER US FROM FRIENDS

While most people of the United States are sensible of the blessed conditions which have been brought about by Woodrow Wilson while President, some of his supporters, doubtless meaning well, remind us of the fable of the bear who was keeping flies from the face of a sleeping man. Bruin swatted one of the pests with his paw with disastrous effect upon the man.

The Richmond Journal in referring to the lapsus linguae often noticed in men who should know better says:
"Washington should have put a muzzle on the Democratic national committee assembly a day or two ago that President Wilson had wisely avoided war with Mexico because there are 400,000 Japanese soldiers in the neighboring republic ready to take up arms against the United States and overthrow the Monroe Doctrine on short notice."

In addition, declared this fluent Colorado Munchausen, there are more able-bodied Japanese in California than soldiers in the United States regular army. Doubtless, this ridiculous utterance is intended to be an argument in support of the administration, but it is so absurdly untrue that the Colorado man ought to be called off before he further injures a good cause. As a matter of statistical fact, the total Japanese living abroad number only 358, 71, distributed as follows: In the United States, 80,773; Hawaii, 90,808; Philippines, 5,179; Guam, 119.
In China, 126,950; Brazil, 15,465; Canada, 11,959; Australia, 6,661; Peru, 5,381; and in Mexico, 2,737. These figures are official, tabulated by the Japanese government. Thus we see that Vroo-man's grotesque statement of 400, 000 is reduced by the cold truth to considerably less than one per cent. of that number. As for the Japanese in California, men, women and children, combined aggregate only 70,000 and a more peaceable, industrious, intelligent lot of people it were hard to find in any alien group.

The United States is Japan's best customer and she is not inclined to lift a finger to break the commercial bond with America. She would be proud of our friendship if it were extended in the right spirit, and we have a notion that this country might do worse than cultivate assiduously Japan's good will, instead of alienating a nation which has every reason to be proud of its unprecedented progress in the last half century.

FRIENDLY MANIFESTATION.

The Knights of Malta and the P. O.
S. of A., societies of Pottsville, Pa., have decided to decorate their buildings in honor of the State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, to be held in Pottsville next week.
The action is regarded as important as indicating a growing cordiality between leading Protestant and Catholic societies.

When the P. O. S. of A. convention and the Knights of Malta concla-ves were held in Pottsville the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic organization had elaborate decorations, and the action of the Protestant societies is in recognition of this liberality.

The good people of Pottsville are manifesting a commendable spirit.
There will be many guests at the marriage supper of the Lamb who have been victims of sect prejudice in this world.

It will be no time to say "I am of Paul, I am of Apollos and I of Cephas."

Gloomy pages from mediaeval history too often come to the minds of Christians of all denominations in the twentieth century. The impartial reader of the annals of the past, while not disposed to offer apologies for the overt act or misguided men cannot fail to see violence was at times in evidence in all camps, but the people of our day are not responsible for the acts of their predecessors.

An old story tells us of an Irishman who upon meeting a Jew in a large city knocked him down. The Israelite staggered to his feet and asked the son of Erin why he treated him thus, when the latter replied, "The Jews crucified Christ." The Hebrew said, "Why that happened nineteen hundred years ago." The Irishman answered, "Well, that may be, but I never heard of it until yesterday."

NEWS OF THE DAY

The War Department gave out yesterday statistics showing for the first time that the total strength of the National Guard on the border is 98,500 men; per cent of sick among the guardsmen is 1.14. There were no deaths during the week ending August 5.

After 36 years of being a candidate for one office, J. Worten Keys was nominated for sheriff by the Democrats of Saline county, Mo., in the primaries last week by a plurality of 264 votes. He has been a candidate for sheriff at each election since 1880 and failed to win until this year.

The first frost of the season was reported from Edmonton, Alberta, yesterday, where the mercury registered 32 degrees. From points all over the Middle West, which ten days ago were sweltering in temperatures between 90 and 105, there were rains and cooler weather reported.

"A deadlock on the face of it" was the way Judge Martin A. Knapp, chairman of the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation last night in New York described the second day's effort to bring the 225 railways and their union employees together and avert a nation-wide strike.

From the 40th floor of the Singer building in New York, one of the tallest in the world, a man plunged 600 feet to death yesterday into the midst of a Broadway lunch hour crowd. He was identified as Albert Goldman, 60 years old. Goldman landed directly "n front of the Broadway entrance. His body narrowly escaped passersby and was crushed beyond recognition.

After pouring coal oil over her clothing and setting herself afire, Mary Jones, 18 years old, fought two police men in the kitchen of her home in Baltimore when they attempted to smother the flames in an effort to save her life last night. During the struggle the policemen had their hair badly singed and sustained burns on their arms and hands. The girl is in a critical condition.

William Hickman's right arm was so badly crushed when the Delaware Fire Company's "twelve-ton" ladder truck ran over it in Wilmington, Del., that the limb had to be amputated.
The accident was due to some meddlesome person turning on the truck controller without the knowledge of the operator, Joseph Fisher. The truck ran out and crossing the street, broke a marble window-sill in the Jewish Synagogue.

Dr. M. C. Dunn, one of Henderson, Ky., most prominent physicians, and president of the school board, was shot and instantly killed yesterday by C. M. Wyne, who accused the physician of breaking up his home. Wyne was arrested. Dr.
Dunn was defendant in a $10,000 suit filed some time ago by Wyne, who charged the physician had attacked Mrs. Wyne. Dr. Dunn declared he was the victim of attempted extortion.

There is a possibility that the strike at the clothing plant of Strouse and Bros., in Baltimore, which is regarded by many as much more of a fight between the Federation of Labor and the Amalgamated Garment Workers' of America than a mere strike upon the part of Strouse employees, may lead to a general strike of the 40,000 trades-unionists affiliated with the Baltimore Federation of Labor.

The German submarine Deutschland, which sailed from Baltimore for Bremen, was sighted Sunday night last off the Grand Banks by the Norwegian steamship Meteor, which arrived yesterday at Philadelphia. A dispatch from Berlin says great mystery surrounds the submarine Bremen. Even official circles profess ignorance as to whether the vessel has put to sea, or if she has, on what date she sailed.

Frank Vaughan, 34, was instantly killed and Roy Brown, 20, died yesterday morning as a result of coming in contact with a heavily charged feed wire on a runway in the Pennsylvania shop yard at Altoona, Pa.
The men were painting the runway when Brown touched the wire and was rendered unconscious. Vaughan went to his companion's assistance, and, standing on the runway, tried to pull Brown from his position, thus forming a contact.

The giant transoceanic Zeppelin promised by Germany to help defeat the purposes of the British blockade is nearing construction near Lake Constance. The great passenger-carrying airship is hundreds of feet longer than the largest of the war Zeppelins, which have been used in the bombardment of English and French towns. Inflated, it will be 787 feet in length. It is designed to carry 88,000 pounds, the equivalent of 580 average persons.

Charles E. Hughes, replying to Secretary Redfield's telegram denying that E. Dana Durand was forced out of office as director of the census, on Wednesday read to a large audience in Minneapolis, a letter from Mr. Durand in which Mr.
Durand said that he had told Redfield he would resign, but wanted to remain, and that Redfield replied that the administration had decided on a change. Mr. Durand's letter was read by the nominee in the course of an open air speech at the parade grounds in Minneapolis.

MAJOR LEAGUE BALL.

American League

Chicago White Sox have dropped back to third place and Cleveland has taken second, while Boston yesterday further strengthened their hold on the leading position in the race.

New York Yanks, who were playing at such a terrific clip a short while ago but are now losing games steadily, are now in sixth place, and St. Louis Browns occupy the leading place in the second division, the Tigers having climbed into the first division. Altogether yesterday's results in the American circuit caused quite a shake-up in the standing of the teams.

The Nationals quit the west after a might sorry showing. Both western invasions this year have been rank failures. On the last trip, the Nationals dropped fourteen out of eighteen games, losing every game in the final series with the Browns.

Yesterday's scores:

St. Louis, 4; Washington, 0.
Cleveland, 3; New York, 2.
Detroit, 10; Athletics, 4.
Boston, 11; Chicago, 5.

VIRGINIA NEWS

The eighth annual convention of the Southern Commercial Congress will be held in Norfolk from December 11 to 14 inclusive.

Henry G. Hechler, sixty-seven years old, formerly treasurer of Henrico county, died yesterday. Hechler sustained a fall about three weeks ago and had since grown steadily worse.

From German sources, known to be closely associated with the Eastern Forwarding Company, of Baltimore, a report is current in Norfolk that the German submarine merchantman Bremen is expected to arrive at the Virginia Capes within the next 24 hours. The Bremen, according to the report, is merely waiting a favorable opportunity to slip past the allied cruisers.

John Rice, who lives near Hillman's store, in the vicinity of Lynch Station, is critically ill from blood poisoning and his friends fear the worst. Last week he opened a pimple on his hand with a brass pin and the place soon became sore.

and inflamed, the inflammation and inflamed, the inflammation later involving the whole arm.

Under sentence of death for the murder of a negro, Henry Lewis, colored, was detected in Lynchburg, Wednesday morning when about to make his escape from jail in by Deputy Sergeant Bernard. The officer found the negro had cut through a bar with a saw given him recently by a Federal prisoner who escaped. Further investigation disclosed that Lewis had soaped his body to slip through the small opening.

The Richmond-Washington highway is now practically assured, according to announcement made yesterday by the Richmond Automobile Club, as the greater part of the funds needed for this improvement are in sight. Contracts have been let for the construction of a three mile stretch of roadway, which will eliminate several bad pieces of road and additional work will be started about August 15. The club hopes to have the roadway so far completed by winter as to route cars in this direction, and the project will be pushed next spring.

The political situation in the Seventh Virginia district has cleared up considerably in the last few days. State Senator N. B. Early, of Greene, has declined definitely to enter the race for the unexpired term for which Representative James Hay was chosen. Floyd W. Weaver, of Luray, will support Early for the short term and will be himself a candidate for the full term beginning March 4. From present indications the only candidates in the field will be Judge Thomas W. Harrison, of Winchester, and Floyd W. Weaver, for the long term, and Judge Harrison and Senator Early for the short term. State Senator Henry H. Downing, of Front Royal, will not be a candidate for either term, but will support Weaver and Early.

A meeting of citizens residing along the line of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway has been announced for next Monday night, for the purpose of protesting against the advance in tariff recently established by that company, and the discontinuance of transfers at Thirty-sixth and M streets intersection, Washington. According to residents in that section of Virginia, the advance necessitates an additional expenditure of from $3 to $5 a month. The new schedule of the Washington and Old Dominion Railway went into effect last Wednesday. Commuters coming into Washington were required to pay an extra fare on boarding the city line. Passengers who heretofore have been able to go as far as Cherrydale, Va., by the transfer arrangement, were charged an extra five cents on the Virginia line.

CHASTISED BRIDE.

Allentown, Pa., Aug. 11.—Because he followed the advice of his father-in-law and spanked his bride of two months, Earl Eustice is in jail. She developed a mania to spend all her evenings in the parks, he said, and all his pleadings that she stay home were in vain.

She also defied her father, who there-upon suggested personal chastisement. When she was spanked she swore out a warrant. Her husband and her parents asked her to try married life over again, but she was obdurate.

WARNS AGAINST BOOSTING

No Basis for Fear of Serious Shortage in Wheat Crop Agricultural Experts Say.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Experts of Government departments united today in saying that there is no need to fear because of the small wheat crop expected this year. Even if there were a serious shortage—if not a bushel of wheat were harvested—this nation would live, as one official said, "on the fat of the land."

Two Government departments said today they are ready to meet any manipulation of wheat or flour—the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission. Congress probably also would be involved—as in the present gasoline investigation.

"If we find evidence of unfair methods and price boosting, either by complaint to us or by our own information, we shall get busy," said Commissioner Davies, of the Federal Trade Commission. "There are three ways to get at price boosters—through the Federal Trade Commission, the Department of Justice, or Congress. The commission and the Department of Justice would co-operate in any investigation undertaken."

This year's estimated crop leaves about 34,000,000 bushels for export, and this low margin has excited speculators, the department men said, causing them to forget that 75,000,000 bushels of last year's crop are left in the hands of farmers—who were unable to dispose of it and 75,000,000 bushels more are in elevators and warehouses.

Blue-Eyed Men Poor Husbands.

Cleveland, Aug. 11.—Unfaithfulness lurks behind the blue eyes of men, Blue-eyed men make very, very poor husbands. That's the statement of Bradley Hull, who, by the way, is brown-eyed. Hull ought to know. He's attorney for the Cleveland Humane Society.

He declares that 75 per cent of the men who have forsaken their wives or children during the last seven years here are blue-eyed men. "I've got figures to prove this indictment against such men," said Hull, "Maybe the blue-eyed man is more adventurous."

SAVES ASHES OF MONEY.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—When Mrs. Katherine Kociski burned up $250 given her to keep by Steve Jozowski, she sent the ashes to President Wilson. Someone told her she could get the money back.
